Let us Prepare Two Tables

When we return home, let us prepare two tables, one for bodily food, the other for that spiritual food which is the Holy Scripture. Let the husband repeat what has been said in the holy assembly; let the wife learn it and the children listen to it. Let each of you make your home a Church. Are you not responsible for the salvation of your children? Are you not likely to have to give an account of their upbringing? Just as we, the shepherds of the flock will give an account of what we have done for your souls, so fathers of families will have to answer before God for all the people in their home.

By St. John Chrysostom - On Genesis, 6, 2 (PG 53)

Father's Day Humor

Children go through four fascinating stages. First they call you Da-Da.

Then they call you Daddy.

As they mature they call you Dad.

Finally they call you collect...

Bimaemo Tamka! Happy and Blessed Father's Day!

O Lord our God, the Infinite Father: we beseech You to attentively hear our supplicating voices which we, Your humble sons and daughters and lowly children, offer today on behalf of all of our fathers. To our youthful fathers, may You give the wisdom of Your advice and counsel; to those of our fathers in the prime of life, may You give strength and inspiration, reassuring them with that spiritual joy that comes from having experienced mature fatherhood; to our elderly fathers, may You grant them Your preservation, sustaining them with Your comfort and spiritual tenderness; and to those of our fathers whom You have already called to Your heavenly abode, may You graciously favor them by generously rewarding them. Kindle within our hearts that same dedicated love and faithful devotion that Your Only-Begotten Son, our Lord, God, and Savior, Jesus Christ showed toward fulfilling Your divine will. O Almighty Father, on this festive day as we especially pay tribute to all of our fathers, we beseech You to receive our petitions and to quickly hear us and show all of them Your mercy.

Announcements

Today: Father's Day

On this Sunday our nation celebrates Father's Day. We ask Almighty God to bless our Fathers as we celebrate this special day dedicated in their honor. In Blessed repose grant eternal rest, O Lord, to our deceased Fathers and make their memory eternal.

Ambrose Romanos Singers

To celebrate the Patronal Feast of St. John the Baptist Ukrainian Catholic Church in the Southside (109 S. 7th Street) the Ambrose Romanos Singers will be singing Great Vespers in celebration of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. This will take place Wednesday evening, June 23rd at 7:00 p.m. We are all invited to this celebration and to hear a choir sing the praises for this Feast Day.

Nativity of St. John the Baptist

To honor the birth of St. John the Baptist we will have on the Feast itself, Thursday, June 24th, Divine Liturgy celebrated at 9:00 a.m. Please come and celebrate the Forerunner of Our Lord who proclaimed to the world the incarnation of the Son of God!

Movie Presentation: Sunday, July 11th

During the month of July we celebrate the memory of many Saints who played a special role in the history of our particular Church. On July 10th, we honor Venerable Anthony of the Kyiv Caves, founder of monastic life in Kyivan Rus'-Ukraine. On July 11th, we honor St. Olga the mother of St. Volodymyr-Vladimir the Enlightener of Kyivan Rus'-Ukraine whose memory is celebrated on July 15th.

As part of this celebration we will have on Sunday, July 11th a movie presentation on the life of Blessed Vasyl Velychkovsky, confessor and martyr of the Ukrainian Catholic Church who was beatified by Pope John Paul II on June 27, 2001. The title of this movie is "Steadfast and Faithful: A Martyr's Journey" and the movie presentation (30 minutes) will take place following the Divine Liturgy in our Church hall. Please plan to come!

Pyrohy

This past week we again had a sale of our "frozen pyrohy". Our total income from that sale was $275.50 Thank you!

Collection- May God bless you...

The total for Sunday, June 13, 2010 was $1684.35.

Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

How great must have been the faith of the Centurion who came to Christ asking for a healing of his servant, whom he loved, who was faithful to him. He heard Christ say, "I will come and heal him.", and he could answer, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; but only say the word, and my servant will be healed."

This is an event of the life of Christ; it is an event that touched not only the Centurion, not only his servant, but every member of the household. He came without Christ, and the servant was healed. Who of us, in dire, agonizing pain is capable of turning to the Lord, present Him his request, ask Him to show mercy and to manifest His power, and when the Lord says to us, in our hearts, 'I shall come, I shall work this miracle for you' - who of us would have the courage to say, 'No, Lord! Your word is enough!'

And again, who of us, at moments when the Lord came close to us, have the thought of saying such words, realizing because of the holiness of Christ, the holiness of God, how unworthy we are of Him, of His life, His teaching, His example, His death, His descent into hell, to the very rock bottom of evil. And this hell is not only an image; isn't it within us? Isn't there in us a darkness that needs more than enlightenment - the Light of God, God, the light of the world.

On this Sunday the amazing centurion's faith was manifested. So often when we pray, we ask the Lord insistently to come close to us, to make His presence felt, so that we may clearly feel His power. This man acted with great simplicity, saying to Christ, "No don't trouble yourself to come. I am a sinful man and not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but just say the word and my servant will be healed. One word from God - that was what the man asked for, not the joy of contact which we all long. Today, we ask the Lord that He should fulfill our requests and, in addition to that, grant us the miraculous joy of His presence. Amen.
