Memorial Day Prayer by Pope Benedict XVI

O God, our Father, endless source of life and peace, welcome into Your merciful embrace the fallen of the war that raged here, the fallen of all wars that have bloodied the earth. Grant that they may enjoy the light that does not fail, which, in the reflection of Your splendor, illumines the consciences of all men and women of good will. You, Who in Your Son Jesus Christ gave suffering humanity a glorious witness of Your love for us, You, Who in our Lord Christ gave us the sign of a suffering that is never in vain, but fruitful in Your redeeming power, grant those who yet suffer for the blind violence of fratricidal wars the strength of the hope that does not fade, the dream of a definitive civilization of life, the courage of a real and daily activity of peace. Give us your Paraclete Spirit so that the men of our time may understand that the gift of peace is much more precious than any corruptible treasure, and that while awaiting the day that does not end we are all called to be builders of peace for the future of Your children. Make all Christians more convinced witnesses of life, the inestimable gift of Your love, You Who live and reign for ever and ever Amen.

Announcements

Today: Sunday of All Saints

In the Eastern Church tradition, the Sunday after Pentecost is the Sunday of All Saints. As Pentecost is tied to the Ascension of Christ, so is All Saints tied with Pentecost. Pentecost brought down the Holy Spirit upon the Church, and it is through the Holy Spirit we are incorporated into the Body of Christ; it is through the Spirit we are able to become holy, become saints.

Today: Talent Show

Following the Divine Liturgy, please join us in the Church hall for the Talent Show of our St. George's Church School children. Come and see the wonderful talents of our parish children and to enjoy the food prepared by the parents followed by an exciting program. Proceeds from this event will help organize a field trip for the children during the summer. Come and enjoy good fellowship and a great program of our kids!

Our Sympathies

Our prayers and sympathies are extended to the family and friends of +Sandra Winghart (Siwecky) who was buried on Saturday, May 22nd, 2010. May the Lord commit her soul to the place where the just repose and may her memory be eternal!

Tomorrow: Memorial Day

As part of the Memorial Day celebrations, the Blessing of Graves for our parish family will take place tomorrow, Monday, May 31st. At 10:00 a.m. a Panikhida Service followed by the Blessing of Graves will take place at Highwood Cemetery. At 10:45 a.m. a Panikhida Service followed by the Blessing of Graves will take place at Uniondale Cemetery. Graves in other cemeteries will be blessed by request and appointment. Please come to be part of the Memorial Services as we pray and honor our departed loved ones.

Tomorrow: Apostles Fast

On Monday, May 31st, we begin in our Liturgical calendar the Apostles Fast also called "Petrivka", during which the Holy Church prepares the faithful with prayer and fasting for the feast of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul whose memory we celebrate on June 29th. This fast concludes on Monday, June 28th. According to the Pastoral Guide of the Ukrainian Catholic Church in the U.S.A. simple abstinence (from meat) is observed on Friday's during this fasting period. Even though this fasting period in honor of the Apostles has been forgotten in our Holy Church let us do our best in observing our spiritual patrimony.

Big Sale

The residents of Sheptytsky Arms/St. George's Close will be having a Yard Sale, Home Made Baked Goods and 50/50 chances on Saturday, June 5th, from 12:00 noon to 4:00 p.m. Please plan to come to support this upcoming fundraiser.

Church School

Next Sunday, June 6th, will be the last class for our St. George's children. At the end of the Divine Liturgy we will have a special prayer and blessing for all the children as they begin their summer vacation. As we come to the conclusion of this school year I ask all parents to think about ideas for events that we can organize together during the summer months for our children.

Upcoming Presentation

On Sunday, June 13th, following the Divine Liturgy our parishioner Dr. M. Sabina Daroski will have a presentation in our Church hall entitled "Staying Healthy at all Ages." We are all invited for this presentation which will focus on the importance of preventative health. At the conclusion of this presentation we will also have a question/answer session.

Father's Day

As part of our Father's Day celebration we will be honoring our Fathers by lighting remembrance candles in honor of them. These candles will be lit the weekend of June 20th, and will burn in front of the mosaic icon of Christ the Teacher (right side of the Church). Please use the form in today's bulletin to order your candles and place it in the collection basket. Please print each name and mark the correct box next to each name, whether living or deceased.

Sunday of All Saints

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfection of our faith.

Today we are keeping the Day of All Saints, of all those who have heard Christ speak, whose hearts and minds have been set afire, and went out into the world to bring to the whole world the good news. The news that God has so loved the world, that He has entered into it never to leave it, and that in His Resurrection He has taken all that is the world - in His Flesh the whole visible world, in His soul all the human world - and has established it on the right hand of the Father.

This is not only the glory of the Church, it is a call addressed to each of us. Today we are called by the Gospel, we are encouraged by the Epistle, so to love God as to become truly His disciples, and that means that our faith in Him must be and become, day after day, more truly faithful, so that seeing us, seeing how we live, seeing who we are, people could believe that Christ has come to save the world and is worth following as a Master and as a Friend.

St James, speaking to people of his time said: "If you want to show me your faith without your works, I will show you my faith by my works..." Let us then go into the world to bring to a world which is in great misery now, in distress that it has lost its way, the good news. Not only the news that God has come and is in our midst, that He has shown us the way, that He is the way and He has given an example for everyone to follow, not in a slavish way, not as a hireling, but with the joy that following this way means that we are fulfilled and that life is deep in us and it can flow on to others.

This is the message of today's feast. In the next two weeks we will keep more particularly the feast of our particular Church like Vladimir and his mother St. Olga or the patron of our Eparchy St. Josaphat and even the saints glorified in our own country St. Elizabeth Seton or St. John Neumann, - people of our blood, our flesh, our kin. Let us think of them and let us try to live in such a way that they may rejoice that they have a following worthy of Christ and worthy of their lives. Amen.
