Ik The Icon of the Nativity of Christ

One of the most famous icons in our Holy Churches is that of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Its symbolism is that of the Creator of the Universe entering history as a newborn babe. The little helpless figure in swaddling clothes represents the complete submission of Christ in the physical conditions governing the human race. Yet He remains Lord of Creation. The angels sing praises. The Magi and the shepherds bring their gifts. The sky salutes Him with a star. The earth provides Him with a cave. The animals watch Him in silent wonder and we humans offer Him one of us, the Virgin Mother.

The lower scenes underline the scandal of the Incarnation. The right-hand scene shows the washing of the infant by the mid-wife and her assistant. It tells that Christ was born like any other child. The scene in the left portrays the righteous Joseph, who, having observed the washing of the infant, is once again assailed by doubts as to the virginity of his spouse.

He is tempted by the devil, who suggests that if the infant were truly divine He would not have been born in the human way. The Mother Mary is in the center, and from her reclining position looks at Joseph as if trying to overcome his doubts and temptations.

When the Lord Jesus was born of the Virgin, the whole creation lit up. Behold: shepherds keep watch, the Magi adore, angels sing hymns of praise, and Herod trembles, for the Savior of our souls has appeared in the flesh!

Today the Virgin gives birth to the One who surpasses all essences, and the earth offers a cave to God, the Inaccessible One. Angels sing His glory together with the shepherds, for unto us is born a Child who is God from all eternity.

Christmas Traditions

The Tradition of Christmas Trees amongst Christians: According to Church records, Saint Boniface (who, also according to Church records, had felled the Thor's Oak) attempted to Christianize the indigenous Germanic tribes by introducing the notion of the Holy Trinity by using the cone-shaped evergreen trees because of their triangular appearance

The Tradition of having a Live Nativity: St Francis of Assisi is credited with the invention of three-dimensional Nativity Scenes. Some fairytale versions claim he used statues or costumed people, but Thomas of Celano, the biographer of St. Francis tells how he only used a straw-filled manger (feeding trough) set between a real ox and donkey. According to Thomas of Celano, it was beautiful in its simplicity with the manger acting as the altar for the Christmas Service.
