Who belongs to the group of these Myrrh-Bearing Women?

The angel came to the myrrh-bearing women at the tomb and said: Myrrh is meant for the dead; but Christ has shown Himself a stranger to corruption! So proclaim: the Lord is Risen, granting the world great mercy!

The faithful women who visited the tomb of Our Lord on that morning of the Resurrection included: Mary Magdalene, from whom the Lord cast out seven devils. She was the first witness to the Resurrection. We must not forget the Theotokos, referred to as “Mary the mother of Joses” (Joses was one of the sons of St. Joseph the Betrothed by his first wife; Mary was his step-mother). We also have Joanna, the wife of Chouza, the steward/administrator of King Herod Antipas and Salome, a daughter of St. Joseph the Betrothed by his first wife, who was also the wife of Zebedee and the mother of the Apostles James and John

After the Resurrection, St. Mary Magdalene went to Rome. Tradition teaches that when Mary Magdalene first met the Roman emperor, Tiberius Caesar, she held a plain egg in her hand and greeted him with the words, “Christ is Risen!” Tiberius exclaimed: “How can someone rise from the dead? This is hard to believe. It is just as likely that Christ rose from the dead as it is that the egg you are holding will turn red.” Even as he spoke, the egg turned a brilliant red! She then preached the good news of Jesus Christ to the emperor and the imperial household.

At that moment Mary Magdalene told Tiberius all that Pontius Pilate and the leaders of the Jews had done to the Savior. Her testimony was enough to condemn them to death. Following that encounter with the emperor St. Mary Magdalene left Rome for the city of Ephesus, where she died and was buried by the Bishop of that local community St. John the Theologian. Later on the Emperor Leo the Wise moved her relics to the imperial city of Constantinople.

You did command the myrrh-bearers to rejoice, O Christ! By Your Resurrection, You did stop the lamentation of Eve, O God! You did command Your apostles to preach: The Savior is Risen!

Announcements:

Today: Myrrh-bearing Women

On this Third Sunday of Pascha, we honor the Myrrh-bearing Women who cared for the body of Our Savior at His death, and, who were the first witnesses of His Glorious Resurrection. As we read in Holy Scripture, these women had been together throughout Our Lord’s public ministry. Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Susanna, and others (Luke 8:3) are described as providing for Jesus out of their possessions. Today we honor their love, faithfulness and dedication, as they faithfully followed Christ Our Savior and continued to proclaim the Good News of Salvation.
